ADVENT

There is a dream, there is a place, where justice and peace forever embrace.

There, where the wolf
lies with the lamb

There in the heart of the Holy I AM.

Where is that dream,
where is that place,
with so much on earth
diminished, defaced?

How do we dream, how do we dare See such a vision
through grief and despair?

Look for a star! Look for a bed, where cattle and sheep
each ev'ning are fed.

Justice and peace,
heaven and earth
there will embrace
in a marvelous birth.
