Opening prayer

Christ has no body but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
Compassion on this world,
Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good,
Yours are the hands, with which he blesses all the world.
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet,
Yours are the eyes, you are his body.
Christ has no body now but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks compassion on this world.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

- attributed to St. Teresa of Ávila
The role of the vestry

A bit of history

- ‘Vestry’ as the parish robing room
- With congregational growth came 12 representatives with life-long terms
- Today vestries reflect diversity of congregation (including youth!)

The average vestry today

- New members are elected at annual parish gathering
- Size of vestries range between six to twelve representatives
- Clergy generally serve as presiding officers (rector, priest in charge, vicar)
- There are usually two wardens

But what do vestries do?
The role of the vestry

Discernment
- Discerns where God is calling the congregation in your location, at this particular point in time

Mission and Vision
- Helps articulate the mission and vision of the congregation

New Leaders
- Identifies new leaders for the congregation and wider Church

Stewards Resources
- Manages resources and finances of congregation

What the Canons say...
- Shall be agents and legal representatives of the parish in all matters concerning its corporate properties; and the relations of the parish to its clergy.
- Shall ensure that standard business methods will be observed.
- When a Parish is without a Rector, the officers of the vestry are responsible for the continuation of worship, including the calling of a new rector.
- The vestry has responsibility for nominating persons for holy orders.
The role of today’s vestry

1. Change
   - Lack of change and resistance to change
   - Managing the change that comes from starting healthier practices

2. Communications
   - Leaders’ role as communicators
   - Capacity issues around new technologies
   - Integrating internal and external communications

3. Stewardship
   - Needs are many, getting all members to respond to that need is difficult
   - The notion of stewardship is countercultural
   - “What we’re doing now isn’t effective”

4. Vestry Leadership
   - Roles & process for vestry meetings
   - Inspiring and developing a unified & functioning team

5. Vision and Planning
   - Difficulty of creating a congregational vision - that is, one shared by all, with input from all
   - Difficulty of planning for the future when overwhelmed with immediate needs
   - Need for a plan to get congregations through the next few “rough” years

Summary of data from ECF surveys from 2011-2013

Discerning God’s direction amidst many changes, including:

- Fluidity in choices of faith - more than one-quarter of Americans changed religions or opted for none
- Rise of “Nones,” where 1-in-4 young Americans not affiliated with a religion
- Decreasing size of mainline Protestantism - becoming a minority Protestant country
- Decline in Episcopal Church membership and aging population (Average Sunday Attendance is 60 people)
- Increased reliance on and necessity for effective lay leaders at the congregational and diocesan levels, more small congregations with part-time clergy
- Diminished financial resources, inability to afford existing buildings
- Increase in Latino and other ethnic or multi-cultural congregations and members
- Significant generational differences in giving patterns and commitment to stewardship, but some overall increase in pledge/plate giving
- Emerging church initiatives, non-traditional models and new, more pro-active bishops
Questions or comments?

Key vestry responsibilities

Discerning God’s mission and vision for the congregation
• The question of ‘why’
• Getting prayer and Bible study on the regular meeting agenda, creating opportunities for deeper reflection
• Restructuring vestry to prioritize discernment of mission and vision

Defining ‘mission’ and ‘vision’
• One shared mission but each congregation is carrying this out in different ways
• ECF defines ‘mission’ as that which God is calling us to do
• ‘Vision’ is what the church and world looks like once our mission has been fully realized
Key vestry responsibilities

Identifying new leadership
• Canonical role in identifying new rector and naming postulants for holy orders
• Broadly speaking, vestries have a role in identifying, recruiting new leadership – both lay and clergy

Vestry nomination and election processes
• Wide variance in how individuals are nominated and elected to vestries
• Recently, greater focus on nomination process as period of extensive discernment

What the church can learn from community organizing
• Being proactive about identifying new leaders
• Conducting one-on-ones to explore areas of common interest
• Want something done? Ask a busy person!

Key vestry responsibilities

Being good stewards of property and resources, creating a financially vital congregation

Fiduciary
• Ensuring proper asset and financial management and oversight
• Salary and benefits for clergy and lay staff

Frequently carried out through
• Diversification of income sources
• Annual stewardship campaigns (annual budget)
• Periodic capital campaigns (building maintenance/expansion, alleviation of debt)
• Setting sound endowment policies and developing planned giving policies

Liability
• Violation or neglect of fiduciary responsibilities, contracts, or any other legal agreements (employment, wrongful termination, etc.)
Key vestry responsibilities

Meeting effectively

- Vestries meet regularly and retreat regularly
- Effective vestry meetings are guided by covenants which lay out norms and expectations for vestry members
- While rector is considered the presiding officer, he/she doesn’t necessarily need to preside at meetings
- Effective meetings begin with significant time spent in spiritual practice
- Place discernment of God’s mission and vision at center of ongoing work
- Will spend bulk of time discussing strategic, big-picture concerns regarding the life of the congregation
- Will place reporting from committees at the very end of the agenda, frequently for consent

Potential next steps

• Research diocesan canons to see if youth can be elected to serve on your vestry
• Consider the size of your vestry. Would increasing/decreasing number of elected members be helpful?
• If you are clergy, consider whether you need to preside at vestry meetings
• Review canonical requirements and liabilities associated with being a vestry member. Does your vestry carry these out?
• Over time, move the focus of vestry meetings toward discernment of God’s mission and vision for the congregation. Consider structural changes to do this
• Begin regular vestry meetings with an extended period of prayer, Bible study, or other practice to begin discerning God’s mission & vision

Potential next steps

• Review sources of income that comprise the annual operating budget. Is there a diversity of income streams?
• Watch the ECF’s webinar “The Basics of Parish Finances”
• Discuss effectiveness of annual stewardship campaigns, whether the congregation needs a capital campaign, and explore current endowment spending policies
• Learn more about setting up a planned giving program in your congregation (Funding Future Ministry)
• Strengthen the nomination and election process for new vestry members
• Create or revise the vestry covenant at next vestry retreat
• Move toward a ‘consent agenda’ style meeting for approval of reports
• Build your toolbox
