

MY CHURCH

A Mad Lib for the Parishioners of All Saints'

When I tell people that I attend All Saints' Episcopal Church they always seem a little _____ at first .

feeling

"That _____ church on the
adjective
corner of Hermitage and Wilson?"

they ask.

"What's that place like?"

I _____ tell them that All
adverb

Saints' is a really _____
adjective

church and that the people are _____, too. Even the priests and staff are _____.

adjective adjective

When I explain what I like best about All Saints', I mention the

_____ and the _____.
noun noun

That's what makes it such a _____ place for me and
adjective

_____. " _____!, it sounds
noun exclamation

like a _____ church," they exclaim.
adjective

What does it take to make it all happen?"

“Well we need _____
adjective
people and a _____
adjective

budget of $365,000,” I answer.

That’s $2,150 per person or family. And I realize that without my _____,
noun
the church couldn’t possibly _____ such _____ ministries.

verb adjective

And that’s why this year, I’m going to _____
adverb

pledge $ _____ to All Saints’. dollar amount

As part of my commitment to All Saints’ and the work of God,

I also would be _____ to be involved in
feeling

_____ and _____.
