Opening prayer

Disturb us, Lord, when we are too well pleased with ourselves, When our dreams have come true Because we have dreamed too little,

When we arrived safely

Because we sailed too close to the shore.

Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost our thirst For the waters of life; Having fallen in love with life, We have ceased to dream of eternity And in our efforts to build a new earth, We have allowed our vision Of the new Heaven to dim.

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly, To venture on wider seas Where storms will show your mastery; Where losing sight of land, We shall find the stars. We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. AMEN.

- Prayer attributed to Sir Francis Drake

The role of the vestry

A bit of history

- 'Vestry' as the parish robing room
 With congregational growth came 12 representatives with life-long terms
- Today vestries reflect diversity of congregation (including youth!)

The average vestry today

- New members are elected at annual parish gathering
- Size of vestries range between six to twelve representatives
 Clergy generally serve as presiding officers (rector, priest in charge, vicar)
 There are usually two wardens

But what do vestries do?

The role of the vestry

Discernment

• Discerns where God is calling the congregation in your location, at this particular point in time

Mission and Vision

· Helps articulate the mission and vision of the congregation

New Leaders

Identifies new leaders for the congregation and wider Church

Stewards Resources

· Manages resources and finances of congregation

The role of the vestry

What the Canons say...

- Shall be agents and legal representatives of the parish in all matters concerning its corporate properties; and the relations of the parish to its clergy.
- Shall ensure that standard business methods will be observed.
- When a Parish is without a Rector, the officers of the vestry are responsible for the continuation of worship, including the calling of a new rector.
- The vestry has responsibility for nominating persons for holy orders.

2. Communications

- Leaders' role as communicators
- Capacity issues around new technologies
- Integrating internal and external communications

3. Stewardship

- Needs are many, getting all members to respond to that need is difficult

- "What we're doing now isn't effective"

4. Vestry Leadership

- · Roles & process for vestry meetings

- Difficulty of creating a congregational vision that is, one shared by all, with input from all
- Difficulty of planning for the future when overwhelmed
- Need for a plan to get congregations through the next few "rough" years

Key vestry responsibilities

Discerning God's mission and vision for the congregation

- Getting prayer and Bible study on the regular meeting agenda, creating opportunities for deeper reflection
- Restructuring vestry to prioritize discernment of mission and vision

Defining 'mission' and 'vision'

- One shared mission but each congregation is carrying this out in different ways
- · ECF defines 'mission' as that which God is calling us to do
- · 'Vision' is what the church and world looks like once our mission has been fully realized

First-time vestry member suddenly realized tonight's meeting was going to be about more than just the budget.

Key vestry responsibilities

Identifying new leadership

- Canonical role in identifying new rector and naming postulants for holy orders
- Broadly speaking, vestries have a role in identifying, recruiting new leadership both lay and clergy

Vestry nomination and election processes

- · Wide variance in how individuals are nominated and elected to vestries
- Recently, greater focus on nomination process as period of extensive discernment

What the church can learn from community organizing

- Being proactive about identifying new leaders
- Conducting one-on-ones to explore areas of common interest
- Want something done? Ask a busy person!

Key vestry responsibilities

Meeting effectively

- · Vestries meet regularly and retreat regularly
- Effective vestry meetings are guided by covenants which lay out norms and expectations for vestry members
- While rector is considered the presiding officer, he/she doesn't necessarily need to preside at meetings
- Effective meetings begin with significant time spent in spiritual practice
- · Place discernment of God's mission and vision at center of ongoing work
- Will spend bulk of time discussing strategic, big-picture concerns regarding the life of the congregation

Potential next steps

- Research diocesan canons to see if youth can be elected to serve on your vestry
- Consider the size of your vestry. Would increasing/decreasing number of elected members be helpful?
- If you are clergy, consider whether you need to preside at vestry meetings
- Review canonical requirements and liabilities associated with being a vestry member. Does your vestry carry these out?
- Over time, move the focus of vestry meetings toward discernment of God's mission and vision for the congregation. Consider structural changes to do this
- Begin regular vestry meetings with an extended period of prayer, Bible study, or other practice to begin discerning God's mission & vision

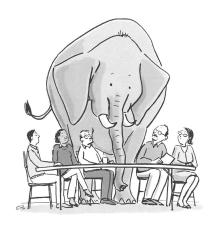

Newest vestry member Heather's suggestion to remove the pews was an excellent conversation starter.

Potential next steps

- Review sources of income that comprise the annual operating budget. Is there a diversity of income streams?
- · Watch the ECF's webinar "The Basics of Parish Finances"
- Discuss effectiveness of annual stewardship campaigns, whether the congregation needs a capital campaign, and explore current endowment spending policies
- Learn more about setting up a planned giving program in your congregation (Funding Future Ministry)
- Strengthen the nomination and election process for new vestry members
- · Create or revise the vestry covenant at next vestry retreat
- Move toward a 'consent agenda' style meeting for approval of reports
- · Build your toolbox

Someone in the vestry finally addressed the elephant in the room.
